INSIDER BEAUTY SCOOP

For a tousled style like Brittany’s, follow these how-tos from New York City stylist Oscar Blandi.

Spritz a volumizing spray on clean, damp hair. Try Oscar Blandi No Gravity Volumizing Spray, $18. Then blow-dry hair using a diffuser attachment to enhance natural waves. (Curly girls should tug on the ends as they dry to stretch out spirals.) Next, take two-inch sections and wrap the parts from ear-level down around a curling iron to flip up the ends.

New York City makeup artist Kristofer Buckle used two coats of black thickening mascara to give Brittany a beyond-foxy doe-eyed look. Begin by curling your lashes, then slowly drag the mascara wand through them, starting at the roots. Let dry, then repeat.
